THE JOURNEY TO THE GAMBIA AND SERREKUNDA

The aeroplanes used to take passengers to The Gambia are A320 airbuses. Flights go weekly from Manchester, Birmingham and Gatwick.

Having arrived at Banjul airport the air conditioned coach takes holiday makers to their hotels in resorts like Bakau and Kololi. Individual travellers can take local taxis to their destinations.

1. On the map mark:
  - the UK and The Gambia.
  - the route from the UK to The Gambia.
2. Describe how you would travel to the airport from your home.
3. Having boarded the aeroplane and travelled for six hours and then landed at Banjul airport describe how you travel to Serrekunda.
4. How many different forms of transport will you have used to get to Serrekunda?
